Business Meeting: A flyer was handed out for the Awards and Installation Banquet that will held on July 7, 2010 at J' Marks stating at 6:30. District Governor Doug Maymon will be the featured speaker. Choice of meals include five cheese pasta, half roasted chicken or 8 oz prime rib. A sign up sign up sheet was pasted. We have 25 right now. Bill Zobus advised that our GSE applicant has received a time and place for the interview on June 26. Zobus handed out a guild line for entering the web sites. R.I., District 6990 and PBL. Passwords are the key to getting in. Have fun.

Program: A fun program was presented by Zobus of one of the summertime favorite foods. The Hot Dog. Some have strange names, like Idaho dog, Deli dog, I'm not from Florida dog, Breakfast dog, Greek dog and Oy vey dog. Of course you know about onions, ketchup, relish and mustard. But would you add salsa, coleslaw, French fries, macaroni, sour cream, vinegar, hummus or baked ziti?

The Chicago Dog is the best: It must be on a poppy seed bun, with mustard, onion, sweet pickle relish, a dill pickle spear, tomato slices, pickled peppers and celery salt. NO KETCHUP!
