Visitors last meeting: K. C. Arnold, Pompano Beach, FL Paul Francis Renneisen (speaker)

Business Meeting: Jack Rosen reports that the school supplies were delivered to Cresthaven and Charles Drew elementary schools. Sorting was completed at Sunshine Health Center thanks to Dale Gibson. Piles of notebooks, filer paper, pencils, erasers, backpacks and copy paper were divided and loaded in two vehicles. Bill Zobus, Harry Schwartz, Rosen. Assisted by Jessie Thomas from Sunshine. Cost of the project was $987. Because of smart buying by Rosen and the committee the supplies are valued at over $2,000. Sorting and delivery took about 3 hours.

Program: Chair of the Day Gerry Contrino introduced Paul Francis Renneisen a candidate for US House of Representatives, District 22. Born and educated in the Midwest, served in military, presently a pilot with American Airlines. If elected he would fight for 10% flat tax.
